

Figure 6.2. The capital-labor split in France, 1820-2010

In the 21st century, capital income (rent, profits, dividends, interest,...) absorbs about 30% of national income, vs. 70% for labor income (salaried and non salaried). Sources and series: see piketty.pse.ens.fr/capital21c.