TABLE I.

Showing the Area, Number of Houses and Population.

NOTE.—The variation in area from 1901 is caused by a considerable number of changes of boundaries between districts, due chiefly to fluvial action, and also in part to remeasurement. These however would cancel each other but for the insertion of some 75 square miles to the area of Jalaun, representing certain jagirs in an anomalous position of semi-independence, which were omitted in 1901. As their population is however included, their area should be.

For similar figures for tahsils see Provincial Tables, No. I and II.

TABLE II.

Variation in population since 1872.

Adjustment owing to changes of boundary or similar causes has been carried out for—

Dehra Dun, Saharanpur, Muzaffarnagar, Farrukhabad, Etah, Bijnor, Budaun, Ballia, Gorakhpur, Azamgarh, Naini Tal, Almora, Hardoi, for all enumerations, and Allahabad for 1901 and 1891. The provincial totals are affected by the cases of Saharanpur, Muzaffarnagar, Ballia and Allahabad, which have lost population to, or gained it from, the Punjab, Bengal and Rewah State. The Farrukhabad-Hardoi transfer affects the Agra and Oudh totals. All other transfers are intra-provincial.

TABLE III.

Towns and villages classified by population.

NOTE.—Column 23 includes the moving population on the night of the census which was enumerated in places where they obviously did not live, e.g., in temporary camps, on boats and in trains. This fact makes it impossible to compare the figures of places given in the other columns with the figures given in Tables IV and V and the village directory, where such figures are included in the town or village concerned.

It should also be noted that as this table is one of inhabited sites as such, rather than of separate towns or villages, it is not always possible to equate the figures given in the even columns from 6 onwards to the figures found in Tables IV and V and the village directory, even when the moving population has been deducted from the latter. Many municipalities have extramunicipal portions, usually of villages whose lands lie partly in and partly out of the municipality. In Tables IV and V etc., only the municipal figures are shown: in this table the extra municipal portion would also be added to them.

Cantonments are in every case added to the neighbouring municipality and the two are shown in a single entry.

Part II.—Persons arranged according to birth place, wherever enumerated.

Part III.—Details of birth place of persons enumerated in 24 cities.

The persons born in Bengal, Bihar and Orissa and Assam, the new provinces constituted in December 1911, are shown under these heads and not under the provincial heads as they stood in March 1911, save as regards cities in which it was not possible to make the reabstraction necessary to obtain these figures. Bengal in their case means Bengal plus Bihar and Orissa and minus Eastern Bengal.

TABLE XII.

Infirmities.

NOTE :—The table is divided into two parts :—

(I) Provincial totals by age-periods ; and (II) District totals for all ages.

A few people were recorded as suffering from two infirmities. They were usually shown only under one head. Unfortunately the record kept of these cases was not complete so that it is impossible to give details: but they were very few in number.

TABLE XIII.

Caste, Tribe, Race or Nationality.

The castes to be shown separately have been selected as follows:—

(1) All castes with over 15,000 persons.

(2) Certain castes which for various reasons it was deemed desirable, to show separately. Such reasons were either ethnographical or connected with administrative convenience.

(3) Wherever a Hindu caste had a Muhammadan branch, the figures of the Muhammadan branch are shown however small (for the sake of completeness).

(4) Amongst Aryas all castes with over 100 persons are shown.

(5) At the end of the table (Part D) the provincial totals of the main castes found in other religions are shown with details of Christians by race, and Parsis as a single total.

(6) The minor castes columns include both minor castes and also figures which could not be definitely assigned to any particular caste. These were very few in number.

The table therefore is in 4 parts (A) Hindus, (B) Muhammadans, (C) Aryas, (D) Minor Religions.

TABLE XV.

Occupation.

1. The table is divided into five parts:—

A.—(1) Provincial summary giving figures of classes, sub-classes, orders and groups,
(2) city figures and
(3) similar district details.

B.—Subsidiary occupations of agriculturists: (1) rent receivers, (2) rent payers, (3) farm servants and field labourers.

C.—Details for certain pairs of occupations.

D.—Distribution of occupations by religion: (1) Provincial (2) city figures.

E.—Figures regarding factories: (i) provincial figures, (ii) district details, (iii) owners by race and caste, (iv) managers by race and caste.

2. The scheme of classification is the international scheme devised by M. J. Bertillon (see chapter XII of report).

3. All through these tables the sub-groups (a), (b) and (c) of groups 1 and 2 are shown under vernacular names, as it is very difficult to find equally brief names in English. Their meanings are as follows:—

"Zamindar ba asami"	Landlord who has leased his lands.
"Dakhilkar asami ... } ba shikmi"	Occupancy tenant ... } who has sub-let
"Asami ... ... }	Ordinary tenant ... } his holding.
"Zamindar (dakhilkar asami or asami) ba jot khud"	Landlord, (occupancy or ordinary tenant) who cultivates his land or holding himself.

Group 1, as a whole, is equivalent to the "rent receivers" of table XV-B, and group 2 as a whole, is equivalent to the "rent payers' of that table. In table XV-C, groups 1 (a) and 2 (a) are united as "zamindar," 1 (b) and 2 (b) as dakhilkar asami and 1 (c) and 2 (c) as "asami." In "asami" have been included "shikmis" and "dar-shikmis" (sub-tenants and sub-subtenants.)
